

June Building Totals $43,250

Ten building permits issued in June valued at $43,250 brought the year's building total to $1,450,431. The permits included remodeling four store fronts and two new residences.

Permits issued were:
Cecil O'Donald, 1210 Eighth Avenue, garage and beauty shop, $1500, June 7.

Glenn R. Gardner, 2414 Eleventh Avenue, residence, $16,000, June 9.

T. G. Hull Jr., 2406 Tenth Avenue, double garage, $1200, June 9.

A. B. Duncan, 1807 Third Avenue, remodel, $2300, June 10.

W. Mitchell Jones, 2506 Seventh Avenue, small residence, $1250, June 18.

Canyon Drug, 1519 Fourth Avenue, remodel store front, $1000, June 24.

Larry Holman, 406 Foster Lane, residence, $17,000, June 24.

T. A. Black Dry Goods, 1521 Fourth Avenue, remodel store front, $1000, June 30.

Businesses Close For July Fourth

Most Canyon businesses will be closed on July 4, according to the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber's retail merchants committee recommended the observance of Independence Day as a holiday.

Mrs. Conatser To Head Council

Mrs. C. V. Conatser, Palo Duro Rusk Home Demonstration Club, was elected chairman of the Randall County Home Demonstration Council for next year as the group met yesterday in the Farm Bureau building.

Other officers are Mrs. B. L. Hufnagle, Pleasant View Home Demonstration Club, vice chairman and Mrs. R. B. Gist Jr., Sunny Hill Home Demonstration Club, secretary-treasurer. Members of the nominating committee were Mrs. V. E. Lundergreen, Mrs. Deene Donnell and Mrs. Dick Barrett.

Funk on West Team For Greenbelt Game

Dory Funk has been invited to play with the West Team in the ninth annual Greenbelt Bowl game in Childress on Aug. 15.

The West team will be coached by H. A. (Sandy) Sanford and Johnny Dunn of Tarleton State College. The East team will be coached by Claude Gilstrap and Burley Bearden of Arlington State College.

Chamber Seeks New Members

A Chamber of Commerce membership drive got underway last week as members of the membership and finance committee and of the board of directors began contacting prospects.

Those to be contacted first are persons who indicated they would be interested in joining when the community forum was conducted in April.

Other prospects will be contacted later. Members of the committee are Frank Morgan, chairman, Levi Cole, Dr. J. A. Hill, R. B. Allen, C. L. Thompson and T. S. Stevenson Sr.

Duties of County Clerk's Office Given to Help Voters Cast Ballots

(This is the second in a series of articles detailing the duties and qualifications of contested county officers up for election this year.—Editor)

The County Clerk is the recorder for the county. He has a number of other duties, also, but the main work of the office is keeping the records of the county and of the people.

Statutory qualifications for the job are the general qualifications of all elected officials—length of residence, citizenship, age, and being free of all taint of dueling. The statutes calling for a county clerk say simply that one shall be elected.

In general, the county clerk is the clerk of the county and probate courts and ex-officio clerk of the commissioners court. He is not called upon to sit in on sessions of the commissioners court in Randall County, however. His office records and files the minutes of the commission.

The county clerk issues licenses, holds escrow and trust funds for the county, handles filing of applications and appointments for notary publics, keeps files of treasurer's receipts issued and warrants issued and records the minutes of the equalization board—in effect he keeps track of all tax valuation raises.

The county clerk also conducts all general and special elections, issuing supplies and ballots and receiving returns of elections. In addition, the clerk conducts absentee voting for primary elections and issues ballots and supplies for them.

But the clerk's main job is filing and recording instruments. Among those which the office keeps are warrant and quit claim deeds, deeds of trust, mechanics and materialman's lien contracts, chattel mortgages, abstracts of judgments, tax liens, brands, marriage records, discharges, licenses, county and probate court minutes, tax receipts, election conservation district records, election returns—you name it, the clerk's office probably has it.

The clerk keeps a record of births and deaths in the county for years prior to 1952, and also records births and deaths since 1952 which occurred outside city limits.

In Randall County, the clerk's office also types all checks except paychecks. The commissioners court approves bills presented for payment, they are taken to the clerk's office where checks are made, and are sent to the treasurer's office for signature and posting.

Around 10,000 instruments are filed each year, and since 1951 the clerk's office has been photostating them for the permanent files. In addition to the clerk, the office has two fulltime deputies and a part-time deputy.

Last year the office collected about $18,000 in recording fees. About half of the deeds to be filed are received by mail, and most are returned to owners by mail.

Randall County pays the county clerk $5720 per year. There are two candidates for the Democratic nomination for the office, T. H. (Tommy) Lair, the incumbent, and Roy N. Byrd Sr. The primary election is July 26.

T. A. Black Dry Goods began remodeling Monday morning, making the fourth storefront change on the square in a week. The remodeling is in cooperation with the Canyon Chamber of Commerce program of work for this year.

BIT Presents Shakespeare Under the Stars as Fourth Summer Production

Back in the Sixteenth Century William Shakespeare decided to write a play in which everything would turn out as the audience would desire it, and he named the play "As You Like It." This happy-ending comedy will be presented as Panhandle audiences would like it by the Palo Duro Players as a high spot in the tenth summer theatre season at West Texas State College.

The production, third Shakespearean show to be directed at WT by William A. and Margaret Moore, will be presented outside in front of the Education Building so the audiences may enjoy the cool Panhandle evenings. Opening show will be July 9 and performances will continue through July 12, with curtain time each night at 8:15.

Admission for Wednesday, opening night, will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Reservations may be made for any night through the WT speech department.

Costumes and an unusual set for the outside stage will be designed by Robert L. Antrim, technical director for the Branding Iron Theatre. Most of the action for the production takes place in a forest. Seats for the audiences will be on the lawns facing the Education Building, with staging along the sidewalks and before the archways of the building's entrance.

In the manner of the early Shakespearean companies, when a few actors doubled for several parts, so will many of the Moores' cast double in several parts for "As You Like It." Only the lead roles will play a single part, and some of them are disguised as other people during the play.

"One of the mysteries of the Shakespearean companies was their ability to play many parts with only a few actors," said Moore. "We are going to find some of the answers in this production."

In the lead female roles are Marty Hinson of Groom as Rosalind and Rae June Hamilton of Amarillo as Celia. Jerry Williams of Amarillo has been cast as Orlando, lead male role, and Tommy Cullen of Canyon will appear as Touchstone, the play's chief clown.

Other single roles are Duke Senior by Jim Perkins of Borger, Amiens by Fawayne Murphy of Dimmitt, Jacques by Roy Lowe of Amarillo, Charles by Larry Hamilton of Amarillo, Sir Oliver Martext by Charles Pierce of Canyon, Corin by Dan Stallings of Pampa, Phoebus by Jo Metcalf of Vega, and Audrey by Roberta Hickman of Canyon.

Appearing in dual roles will be Jack Reynolds of White Deer as Duke Frederick, the usurper, and as Adam; James Hinkley of Pampa as Le Beau and Silvius; and Don Hickman of Canyon as Jacques de Boys, William, and Lord to Frederick. Several other roles are yet to be assigned among the Palo Duro Players.

William A. Moore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, will appear in the production as a page.

Most theatre-goers are familiar with the story of "As You Like It," with the setting in a forest in which Duke Senior and his daughter, Rosalind, have been banished after Duke Frederick (a villain-type) has usurped the dukedom.

In the forest also are the sons of Sir Roland de Boys—Oliver, the eldest and also a villain, Jacques, the middle son, of whom not much is seen, and Orlando, the youngest—the hero.

There are the usual guises and disguises found in most Shakespearean comedies, and there are the pairs of lovers. There are Orlando and Rosalind, Oliver and Celia (she is the daughter of Duke Frederick, and consequently, she and Rosalind are cousins), and two country lovers, the shepherd and shepherdess, Silvius and Phoebe. This Phoebe fell in love, too, with Rosalind, when she was disguised as a man.

Funeral Services Held in Chapel

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the Warren-LaGrone Funeral Chapel for Chester McAdams Presley, 74, who died Friday in his home, 2001 Fifth Avenue, following a lengthy illness.

Officiating was Elder W. A. Winfrey. Pallbearers were A. M. Cunningham, Hosea Foster, E. J. Parsons, C. M. Taler and Delbert Lowes. Interment was in Memory Gardens under the direction of Warren-LaGrone.

Mr. Presley, a retired real estate dealer, was a member of the Trinity Baptist Church of Amarillo.

Survivors include his wife, Beulah; four daughters, Mrs. Don Trölinger of San Bernardino, California, Mrs. H. D. Klein of West Liberty, Iowa, Mrs. Oskar Ekelund of Houston and Mrs. Hatcher Brown of Canyon; two brothers, Abb Presley of Wichita Falls and T. I. Presley of Fort Worth; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Summerford of Hamilton, Tex., and six grandchildren.

Close Cleanup With Weed Fires

As a close to the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Cleanup Campaign, vacant lots which have not been cleaned up will be burned Thursday by chamber members and the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department.

Lot owners who do not want weeds burned away should contact Roland Black, chamber manager, before Thursday. The fire department will have a truck standing by at each fire to keep it from spreading.

Absentee Voting Starts Sunday

Absentee voting for the July 26 Democratic Primary will begin July 6 and will continue through July 23.

Voters who do not expect to be in their home precincts on the day of the primary may obtain the ballots from the county clerk's office. The electioncode provides that absentee ballots may be obtained not more than 20 nor less than three days before an election.

Fireworks Warnings Caution Against Careless Use on Fourth of July

With the Fourth of July upon us, warnings of the dangers of fireworks have been issued by various enforcement agencies.

The sale or use of fireworks is prohibited inside the city limits. Canyon police will be on the lookout for violations, and prosecution is planned.

While it is not illegal to shoot fireworks outside the city, any damage caused is the responsibility of those who use them. With fields and pastures as dry as they are, any fireworks shooting is extra hazardous.

Criminal Dist. Atty. A. W. Lair said that parents are financially responsible if their children set fields afire with fireworks, and that the damages resulting in wheat or stubble fires could run into large amounts.

An Open Letter

Dear City Secretary,

I got your S.O.S. and read it carefully. I am sorry that we have grown so naive as to bite off more than we can chew. I am naive too and I love Canyon. She has been good to me and is now: therefore I enclose five dollars to help as much as it can to meet the immediate need. It came to me unexpectedly and I shall not miss it. If everybody in Canyon will donate all he gets unexpectedly in two days we can remove from our city's fair face this unnatural smudge without troubling the people who are cross about it.

Thank you for notifying me. Your friend

M. Moss Richardson

Postal Rate Increase Slated for Aug. 1

Postal rates will increase Aug. 1, instead of July 1 as reported in an Amarillo newspaper, according to Marion Higdon, postmaster of the Canyon Post Office.

Beginning Aug. 1, first class letter mail will be four cents an ounce; air mail, seven cents; post cards, three cents; air mail postal cards, five cents. There will be no increases in second and third class mail until Jan. 1, 1959.

Higdon reported that stocks of the new stamps are being readied to meet the demand.

100 Places Open For Music Camp

Places for about 100 more high school bandmen remain open for the sixth annual West Texas Music Camp, scheduled Aug. 3-15 at West Texas State College.

A limited enrollment of 300 is accepted each year for the camp, which features two weeks of concentrated instrumental, choral and twirling study. Each student participates in one of three or four bands, in choir, or in twirling and drum majoring classes, as well as small ensembles and private lessons.

Three bands will be formed, according to David L. Kaplan, camp director, and a fourth, or reading band, will be composed of interested students in playing new materials.

A Symphonic Band, composed of the most advanced camp musicians, chosen by audition, will be directed by Dr. Ronald D. Gregory, director of bands at the University of Indiana. The Concert Band will be conducted by James Kerr, director of bands at the University of Wichita, and a Junior High Band will be directed by J. W. King, Jr. band director at Hale Center.

Dr. Houston Bright, director of the West Texas State A Cappella Choir, will conduct the camp choir. Mrs. Bonnie Williams, twirling instructor at Holmes Junior College (Goodman, Miss.), will teach drum majors and twirlers.

Kaplan, assisted by two college graduate students, will teach woodwind instruments, and Dr. Ted Crager, slated to become new music department head this fall at WT, will give brass instruction. Matilda Gaume and Royal Brantley, two West Texas State faculty members, will teach piano and voice, respectively.

Each band member will spend an hour daily in an instrument class, learning the fundamentals of playing—such things as tone concept, embouchure, intonation, blend, tonguing, fingering. Additional time will be spent in sectional and full-band rehearsals.

Besides private lessons, students will spend time in choral rehearsals, in ensemble work, and in other classes such as fundamentals of drill, conducting, theory, and "music for fun." Following a 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. schedule, students will be treated to an outstanding recreational program, including dances, picnics, swimming, trips to Palo Duro Canyon, and planned programs each night.

A number of courses in marching band techniques, music and worship, and the concert band are open to band directors and music teachers during the camp. Two seminars in woodwinds and brass are also open.

Second Signup Is Next Week

A long weekend is in store for students attending the first summer session at West Texas State College, with the July 4 holiday slated Friday.

Students will return to the campus Monday to begin the final week of the first term, and final examinations are scheduled July 11.

Registration for the second term will be held July 15, and class instruction starts July 16. Summer commencement exercises will be held Aug. 22 in Buffalo Stadium.

Slated during the second term are two weekend tours to Central City, Colo., the sixth annual West Texas Music Camp, and a Reading Conference sponsored jointly by the WT education department and the Texas Association for the Improvement of Reading.

First weekend tour will be for the Red Rocks Music Festival in Denver and performances of opera at Central City on July 18-20. The second tour, for drama, will be Aug. 9-11.

The annual West Texas Music Camp will be held Aug. 3-15, and will attract some 300 area high school musicians to the campus. The Reading Conference, July 29-31, usually draws more than 400 teachers and other school people to sessions conducted by outstanding reading consultants.

State Awards E-Way Contract

Contracts for the next section of the Amarillo to Canyon expressway was awarded to Ivan Dement and Austin Bridge Company. The section is 8.282 miles from the top of Canyon Hill to Bell Avenue.

The two companies submitted a low bid of $1,315,770.86 on the project. Construction of grading, structures, flexible base and hot mix pavement is expected to take 300 working days.

Both companies worked on the first section of the expressway in Randall County, from the underpass at Canyon to the top of the hill. It was completed during the winter.

Board Hires Two Teachers

Two teachers were hired Tuesday night by the Canyon Independent School District board.

The new teachers are Mrs. W. R. Wilson and Mrs. Lee Foster. Mrs. Wilson will teach in junior high and Mrs. Foster in high school.

Water Use Over Million-a-Day

Water use during the past week has been more than 1 million gallons a day except on one day. The total use was 1.5 million gallons more than for the same week a year ago.

The total use last week was 8,832,210 gallons, and for the same week in 1957 it was 7,365,800 gallons.

Use by day last week was 1,054,800 on Tuesday, 479,900 Wednesday, 1,413,500 Thursday, 1,340,600 Friday, 1,423,300 Saturday, 1,283,300 Sunday and 1,835,800 Monday.

Rotary Heads

Dr. J. B. Roberts, left, receives the president's gavel from Raymond Raillard at the Canyon Rotary Club's annual change of officers program. Dr. Roberts will be the president for the coming year, and Raillard is the outgoing president.

Why We Take a Holiday

"When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world."

Thus runs the beginning of the Declaration of Independence passed by the Continental Congress in Philadelphia on July 4, 1776. It was signed by John Hancock as president and Charles Thomson as secretary. It was published on July 6 in the Pennsylvania Evening Post. A copy engrossed on parchment was signed by members of the Congress on and after Aug. 2, 1776, and on Jan. 18, 1777, authenticated copies were sent to each of the states "that they be desired to have same put upon record."

The Declaration goes on to list the "Facts."

The King had refused his assent to laws, and forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance. He had refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large district of people unless these people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature.

He had called together the legislative bodies at places unusual and uncomfortable in order to force legislation through fatigue, and had dissolved representative houses repeatedly. He had refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause other representatives to be elected.

He had tried to prevent the population of the states. He had obstructed the administration of justice and had made judges dependent on the King's will alone. He had erected a multitude of new offices. He had kept among the states a standing army without consent of the legislatures. He had made the military independent and superior to the civil powers.

He had combined with others to subject the states to foreign jurisdiction, quartered soldiers among the states, and protected them by mock trial, cut off the states from world trade, imposed taxes without consent, deprived the people of trial by jury, transported people across the seas for prosecution for pretended offenses, abolished the system of English laws in a neighboring province, took away the charters of the states and suspended the legislatures of the states.

He had abdicated government by declaring the states out of his protection and waged war against them, plundered the seas, ravished the coasts, burnt towns and destroyed lives.

He was at the time transporting more armies to the states, and was taking fellow citizens on the high seas to bear arms against the states. He had excited domestic insurrections and brought Indians to fight against the citizens of the states.

The citizens had petitioned for redress in humble terms, but had been turned down. The citizens had warned the King's legislature, but the legislature had turned a deaf ear.

For those reasons, the Continental Congress declared "That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States."

That, strange as it may seem, is why we take a holiday on July 4 and go on picnics, drive madly on the highways, shoot fireworks, loaf around home or go swimming.

Related Facts

When the Declaration of Independence was passed by the Continental Congress, the average age of the members was in the middle 40's, about 45 actually. The oldest member was Benjamin Franklin at 70, and the youngest were Thomas Lynch Jr. of South Carolina, 26, and Edward Rutledge, also of South Carolina and also 26.

Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration, was 33. John Hancock, the president of the congress, was 39. He was a merchant in Massachusetts. George Washington was not a member of the Congress and was not a signer. The second president of the later-formed United States of America, John Adams, was 41.

The occupations of the signers were varied. Some had dual occupations, such as physician and lawyer, jurist and musician, lawyer and soldier, lawyer and farmer, and reverend and jurist.

There were 15 who claimed to be lawyers, 17 who claimed jurist, and one judge. There were nine farmers, four physicians, 11 merchants, six soldiers (four of who claimed another occupation, also), one brewer, one financier, one printer-publisher, one musician, one preacher, one iron manufacturer and one college president.

In all there were 56 signers, not including the secretary. The most unusual name among the signers was probably Charles of Carrollton Carroll. The name which has stuck in the idiom longest is, of course, John Hancock.

What Our Neighbors Say...

Scissor Snippings

Gene Alford in the Moore County News: Like all newspaper editors, we get a bang out of mistakes that see print in neighboring newspapers. It pleases us no end to know that errors are not unique to one paper, and that editors in other towns find a strong sense of humor necessary in ironing out a goof now and then.

We got a laugh from Kenneth Hogue's front page column "My Akin Back!" in the Dalhart Texan Friday after his quiet town was besieged with more than six hundred Lions and their ladies... visiting Dalhart for their annual convention.

Remarks Editor Hogue: "We at the newspaper have had a lot of fun out of the pre-publicity phase of the convention. Tuesday's story about the ladies' part of the convention read in part, 'the ladies can enjoy coffee, tea and the like, have light refreshments, play bridge or participate in other varied activities.' "Several Lionesses called to see about registering for 'playing bridge' and several husbands threatened to lock their wives up during the convention."

We're convinced Editor Hogue has an honest mistake on his hands. And there are the other kind. We, for example, still are asked now and then about the celebrated Hallowe'en punch recipe we ran in which a "quart of Old Grandd" mysteriously found its way into the otherwise sober ingredients.

With our punch and your convention... we should be able to promote some excitement in Dalhart, Mr. Hogue.

From the Claude News: Now is the time for Armstrong County citizens to do some serious thinking about fire prevention and extra fire equipment.

Recent wheat fires proved the need for equipment and had it not been for the quick action of Canyon Volunteer Firemen, serious damage could have resulted in wheat fires in the areas of Armstrong County lying near that city.

Although the county needs fire fighting equipment, the farmers should also take stock of their equipment, if any, and plans whereby they can use it in case of a fire.

Inexpensive pumps, rigs and other equipment can be made by the farmer as stand-by protection for fire.

Does the county need an expensive, chrome plated fire truck? Or could it equip several trucks with a good pump, water storage and hoses that would do the job just as well?

This is a major problem that should be taken up now by, say, the Farm Bureau, and plans made to protect the farm communities in the future. If we wait it will end up like a "hole in the roof." When it isn't raining it doesn't need patching.

I GIVE YOU

TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

A year or two ago Uvalde celebrated its hundredth birthday and I was invited back as a "prominent" former citizen. (I had attended the fifth grade there.) In fact, the Committee invited me to make the principal address at the high school reunion — with H. B. Zachry, the owner of San Antonio's vast Transit Tower (formerly the Smith-Young Building) as a five-minute speaker, first. That really was a case of poor casting, as they would say in theatrical language for he should have been the headliner.

But downright embarrassing was taking part in the parade. Former Vice President John N. Garner, wearing an old-time duster, was in the lead in a horse-drawn coach, with the top down; then came a car with Lt. Gen. J. H. Collier, Major Gen. William D. Old and Lt. Col. Mattie Treadwell, historian of the Wacs — all of these celebrities being former Uvaldeans; and then in the No. 2 car sat "I Give You Texas." (I hope that Harry Hornby will publish this in the Uvalde Leader-News for the record so the several thousand viewers will know who that fellow was.)

An advantage of being up at the front of a parade — if you are in it at all — is that you get through first and then can watch the procession. There were numerous attractive floats; one of a steamboat and another showing water flowing down rocks (this represented

Joyce Hill To Assist In Workshop, Clinic

Joyce Hill, daughter of George Hill of Canyon, will assist in a special workshop and clinic for girls in the Woman's Society of Christian Service annual school of missions and Christian service, to be held July 28-Aug. 1 in the St. John's Methodist Church and the Methodist Student Center in Lubbock.

Other directors will be Mrs. Alby Cockrell, Hereford; Mrs. Darris L. Egger, Dimmitt; Mrs. William Bublitz, Borger, and Barbara Sommerville, Lubbock.

Eligible to attend are all women of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference, all United Church Women who reside within the bounds of the conference and qualified girls who are juniors or seniors in high school or older. Each person attending will be enrolled for a study course, a clinic and a section of "the new approach," which is the title of this year's workshop groups.

Miss Hill, who recently received her master's degree from George Peabody College for Teachers in Nashville, Tenn., is a missionary to Cuba for the Methodist Church.

Junction) being especially impressive.

It is interesting to note that two movie stars, Dale Evans and Dana Andrews, once lived in Uvalde.

The town has wide streets and many trees and you can hear the doves cooing. Around the plaza are the courthouse, the post office and the city hall, each in a square.

The corner, where my father's bowling alley (actually the game was boxball) stood in 1908 has a filling station now. But I recognized several landmarks — the Opera House where I attended several shows and the baseball park, where a mind-reader (blindfolded and driving a spirited team to a buggy) found a key which opened a lock-box which contained a ring which had been hidden — (which sentence probably holds the world's record for "whiffs").

I was glad I returned for Uvalde's Centennial.

And they promised to invite me back for the next celebration, 100 years later.

Westside 4-H Club Meets With Browns

The Westside 4-H Club met June 19 in the home of Linda and Cynthia Brown.

In a sewing demonstration, Mrs. Lewis Tucek, adult leader, showed how to put in a sleeve and collar.

A swimming party and picnic was planned for the group. Refreshments of punch and ice cream were served to Lucy Tucek, Linda Metcalf, Mrs. Tucek, Mrs. Ray Metcalf and the hostesses.

COLE & MOORE

Age is no longer important. Most of us are sold on the philosophy that we're only as old as we feel. Hence, many a grandmother can keep pace, in looks and activities, with women half her age.

There are, however, a few unmistakable signs of creeping years. One has to do with dress. Refusing to wear pointed-toe shoes is a dead giveaway that a woman is no longer bound by fashion; that, in turn, is admission that she's getting older. Ignoring the chemise and sack styles simply can't be done by the young in heart; yet a few hard-headed women of the middle generation hang on doggedly to clothes that preserve whatever semblance of waistline they may have, at the expense of high fashion. Insistence on conventional dress for church services, refusal to wear shorts or slacks outside the confines of their own home and garden; and a liking for hats, as such, are also marks that a woman belongs to a past generation.

Another sign of giving in to the years is holding to an old-fashioned attitude toward open windows. Given a choice, only the die-hards cling to outmoded habits of fresh versus refrigerated air in the dead of summer. Wind and dust and changing temperatures can be laughed at by the modern whose home is equipped with a refrigerated air cooler. But the woman who loves the feel of wind in her face, the smell of pine trees and honeysuckle as it drifts through an open window, will agree with a friend of ours who called her newly air-conditioned home "a pleasant little prison."

So age is a state of mind, maybe. But it's also a matter of preference. And some folks had rather be attractive oldsters than displaced or overgrown kids.

Bride of Canyonite

MRS. MARSHALL JONES

Myra West, Marshall Jones Are Married in Ceremony at Borger

In a candlelight ceremony at 8 p. m. June 21, Myra West of Borger and Marshall Jones of Canyon were united in marriage by the Rev. Beryl West of Dallas, brother of the bride. Vows were solemnized in the First Baptist Church of Borger before an altar marked with sextet candelabra flanked with greenery and a set of hurricane lamps, with trio baskets of pale yellow chrysanthemums and gladioli.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. West of Borger, and parents of the groom are Dean and Mrs. Mitchell Jones of Canyon.

A program of organ music was offered by Mrs. Edgar Allen who played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Lou Ann Dickerson King in "Wedding Prayer" at the close of the ceremony. Patricia Naylor of San Antonio, violinist, played the second movement from Bruch's "Concerto in D Minor" accompanied by Mrs. Marilyn Duke at the piano.

Mrs. Beryl West attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marcie Ann McClellan of Dallas; Betjean Harrison of Houston; Marilyn Vaughan Duke of Longview; Carolyn Sisk of Texas City and Thurlene West of Amarillo. Renee Hager was flower girl and candles were lighted by Susan West of Amarillo and Jo Carol Oden. The attendants wore identically styled waltz dresses of mint organza with dark green satin cummerbunds ending in hem length drapes. Caesar-type wreaths of ivy formed their headbands, and they carried pale yellow roses attached to gold rings.

Dr. Mitchell Jones, Topeka, Kan., was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were George Dowlen, Jerome Edwards of Canyon, James Wiegrefe of Goodrich; Mike Batmanis of Houston and Bob West. David Jones, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown of white Chantilly lace worn over whisper taffeta was fashioned with a low neckline and long sleeves. To the basque waist was attached with a bouffant skirt of deep flounces of lace and tulle extending to a cathedral train. The bride's fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap. Three white orchids surrounded by stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. West chose for her daughter's wedding a pink linen dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Jones, mother of the bridegroom, wore a beige dress of cotton safin with pink accessories. They both wore deep rose corsages.

The reception in the church was directed by Mrs. Bert Gray. Receptionists were Addie Sullens, Fulson, N. M.; Mrs. Diannah Parker, Chickasha, Okla.; Sue Dill, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mrs. Millie De Witt, Dallas; Elaine Finney, Texas City; Nancy Watson, Floydada; Mrs. Alton Wallace Crosby; Charlene Huber, Mrs. Pat Andress, Laura Beth Johnson, Jan and Cathy Hamilton.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Winnie Sallee of Dallas and Clara Ellen Sharp.

For traveling the bride chose a beige and brown linen suit with white accessories and a corsage from the bridal bouquet. The couple will reside at 1514 Avenue I, Galveston.

Peaches, Ice Cream
Plentiful in July

July is peach and ice cream time. However, in the past few years there has been a scarcity of peaches to go with our plentiful supply of ice cream, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Good news this year is that the largest peach crop since 1947 will move to market in July to team up with ice cream. This is why these foods are featured items on the July Plentiful Foods List.

The forecast of the 1958 peach crop in the nine Southern States, which produce the bulk of the nation's early peaches, is 44 per cent larger than the 1957 production, and also 53 per cent above the 1947-1956 average.

Other foods considered in plentiful enough supply to rate spots on the July Plentiful List are watermelons, fresh and processed lemons, potatoes, summer vegetables and vegetable fats and oils.

Among the summer vegetables expected to be in good supply are such items as sweet corn, tomatoes, cabbage, green beans, lettuce, cucumbers, green peppers and onions.

USDA determines what foods are plentiful every month by a survey of the major food suppliers in this area.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT P. GAUTHREAUX

Shipman, Gauthreaux Are Married
In Double Ring Church Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony at the Fairview Baptist Church at 4 p. m. June 20, Nan Earyle Shipman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shipman of Happy, became the bride of Robert P. Gauthreaux, son of Mrs. J. J. Moore of Vera and Eli C. Gauthreaux of Laborville, La.

The Rev. Earl Landtroop of Clovis, N. M., former pastor, read the vows before tall baskets of pink gladioli and candelabra. Candelabra and wire baskets of pink gladioli flanked the altar.

For pre-nuptial selections, "O Promise Me" by Kouen, "I Love You Truly" by Bond, and "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven were played by Mary Francy of Happy, pianist, who accompanied Rev. Lloyd Mann of Abilene, former pastor, as he sang "Always" and "O Perfect Love" by Gurney. Traditional processional and recessional marches were used.

Sharing duties as candlelighters were Patsy and Nancy Schrib of Wayside, cousins of the bride, who were identically attired in dresses of pink crystalline over pink taffeta with matching head bands. They wore pink and white gladioli wristlets. Anne McManigal, Happy, sat at the bride's book.

Janet Middleton, Tulsa, was bridesmaid, and Rhoda Williams, Hereford, was maid-of-honor. Both wore dresses of aqua crystalline over aqua taffeta, with white lace picture hats and white accessories. They carried bouquets of white and aqua daisies, which were used on the serving table at the reception.

Best man was Gene Shipman, brother of the bride, and Jerry Shipman, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Ushers were Ronnie Wesley, Happy, and Jimmy Schrib, Wayside, cousins of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of lace over white satin and pearl earrings belonging to her cousin, Patsy Schrib. She carried a white Bible, a gift of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley, and a silk handkerchief carried by Mrs. T. J. Myers of Canyon at her wedding. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white roses and satin streamers tied with love knots. The lucky coin in her shoe was a gift of the groom's mother, and the traditional blue garter was a gift of Mrs. Myers.

The bride's mother wore a navy cotton dress with navy accessories, and the groom's mother wore a rose lace dress with white accessories.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents.

Serving were Nancy Cobb, Lillie Davis, Joyce Henderson and Mrs. Charlene Dustman, all of Happy. Laid with a lace over aqua, the table was decorated with the attendants' bouquets, crystal punch service and the wedding cake, made and given to the bride by Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Shipman of Happy.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Myers, Canyon; Mrs. Mary Williams, Hereford; and Mrs. N. H. Harvey, Happy.

For the wedding trip to points of interest in North Texas, the bride wore a two piece cotton tweed suit with white accessories. After July 4, the couple will make their home in El Paso.

A 1958 graduate of Happy High School, Mrs. Gauthreaux was pianist at the Fairview Baptist Church. She is the great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Wesley and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Evans, early settlers of the Fairview community.

A jet mechanic for Strategic Air Command stationed at El Paso, Mr. Gauthreaux is a 1956 graduate of Vera High School. He has been stationed at San Antonio, Amarillo and Alaska.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Sherman Adams

The following appeared in one of the New York newspapers:

Here's to New England,

The land of the bean and the cod,

Where the Adamsses speak only to the Goldfines, Under circumstances exceedingly odd.

The author of this piece of poetry was listed as "Unknown." No effort has been made to determine who originated it, but events and announcements that occurred subsequent to its appearance in the New York newspaper would indicate that it would be futile to look for the author at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

All statements, press releases, etc., coming from the White House on this subject would indicate that structure is permeated with the same loyalty under the Eisenhower Administration as prevailed during the Administration of Mr. Truman.

Regardless of the view one takes of the situation, whether it be good, bad or indifferent, there is one inescapable fact about such an episode. It has news value. Until this news value has run its course or lost its effectiveness, the matter will not be dropped.

Whether or not Mr. Adams leaves the employment of the government will depend upon how long this sordid episode contains appreciable news value. It will continue to contain appreciable news value so long as there are untold items that can be brought up one at a time. The question is, how long can Mr. Eisenhower and Mr. Adams stand the heat.

Other cases of misconduct, or as some would say, "imprudent" conduct, during this Administration were short-lived because their news value played out quickly.

They were somewhat like a shooting star on the political horizon. The brilliance of their original flash was promptly dimmed by the quick severance of any ties or connection with the White House.

However, the present situation presents a horse or, perhaps, a vicuna, of another color. This is not a case where some distant relative whose fall into disgrace could be charged off to some inadvisable political marriage along the way. Politically speaking, this involves the blood kin of the immediate family, which probably explains Papa's reaction.

Although to many it may appear as a comedy of errors, the interwoven threads of tragedy must not be overlooked. The fact is that this country was built upon several basic principles. One of these was "equality under the law." In other words, a man was to be judged from a standpoint of complete fairness, regardless of his station in life, his material wealth, or his creed.

Yet, transactions such as those in which Sherman Adams, the Assistant to the President of the United States, and probably the most powerful man in the world next to the President, was involved, would indicate that there is an avenue through which favored treatment may be had; an area in which a man could operate without being subject to the same rules, regulations and laws as the other people of this country; a status that would enable one man to receive preferential treatment in obtaining profitable contracts paid for by the tax money; a situation whereby the friendship with a man high in government would entitle one man to concessions that were not available to others.

It is the doubts and the suspicions created by the Sherman

Adams-Bernard Goldfine performance that might constitute the terrors that could destroy the underpinnings of our entire government. How can any man who bids on a government contract, or has a case pending before the Federal Trade Commission, or an application before the Federal Communications Commission, or even a case pending in a court, help but wonder whether or not he can expect a fair and impartial hearing or trial, or whether on the other hand his adversary or opponent has an inside wire to the White House that can obtain a personal interview with those who will sit in judgment on the matter in which he is interested.

It makes no difference which political party might be in power.

The constitutional rights and guarantees would have little significance under such a system.

The best interests of this country can only be served by a thorough, complete and fair revelation of all of the facts surrounding all of the transactions. The right of the people to know must not be violated.

Visitors

Dr. Ples Harper from Canyon favored us with a visit. Dr. Harper is conductor of a 3½-week tour of New England and other east coast points and had about 28 ladies from all points of the Panhandle.

It was certainly a pleasure to see Charles Conatser of Canyon, District delegate to the National 4-H Club Conference here in Washington.

Right now bass fishermen are winding up the top-water season. This is the type of fishing we dream of. Unfortunately, however, too few of us get out often enough to enjoy it to the fullest.

There is a lot of luck to bass fishing. A lot of science too! The secret of success is in using the right plug in the right place. True, there are times when an old bass will hit on anything. But, there are other times when it seems he will hit on nothing. Did you say that that usually is the time you go fishing? I feel the same way too — and far too often.

While many fish are caught for some reason or another, the man who comes in with a good stringer of big fish usually does it because he knew what he was doing.

A good example of that occurred recently when a group of fishing tackle salesmen beat the brush in Lake Whitney. They came up with more five pound bass in one afternoon than any of the old timers who were there, ever remembered seeing in any one day.

Naturally these salesmen were experts in casting. However, they also knew how to study the lay of the land. It couldn't be said that any one plug was better than another, because each rep was using his own particular brand, and all paid off. The two fishermen who came in for the top prizes were Dave Hawk of Corpus Christi and Ray Bellinger of San Antonio. Dave makes Pico lures and Ray sells Silaflex rods and Langley reels.

Both are wonders in the use of rod and reel. So were all the other reps. But the big payoff came for this team because they picked out places that were natural for bass.

They not only worked the points and the pockets. They worked water where it was evident that a fault line lay beneath. For instance, if a rock ledge protrudes into the water, study its range. If there is a known drop-off beneath the surface, fish parallel to this reef, not across it. In that way you'll attract the big bass on the deep side, as well as the yearlings that might be playing near the surface.

If there is a little drainage cut entering the lake, where water from the countryside flows in to make a sandbar, that usually is a good place, too. Food particles enter the lakes at such places. Small fish feed on the plankton. Big fish feed on the little ones.

Some people fish with top water lures almost all of the time. They get fish. It is known that a bass will dash 20 feet to take a lure if he wants it.

Top-water fishing follows the same general pattern, even though a good top-water fisherman works according to his own experience.

For the beginner, top water fishing is much easier. He can watch his plug work. He is less likely to get hung and lose a plug. And he can have plenty of fun when a bass hits.

Working along the shore line the man in the back of the boat takes the close-in water; the man in the front of the boat reaches out. The front man, however, always should be careful not to disturb all the waters which will affect the fishing of the man in the back of the boat.

Pick your shots. Lay your plug in where there is likely to be a bass. Twitch it, jerk it or chug it, according to the make of lure you are using. Wind in a couple of times, and then do it again.

Sometimes when you are fishing in brush waters, or in moss pockets, it pays to leave your plug where it falls, for 30 seconds or more. Give it a slight twitch occasionally. Some bass finally get curious.

In brush fishing, you'll hang your plug many times. But you'll also get bass. The fellow who never hangs a plug doesn't usually get the most bass.

You can go on and on about the methods of top water fishing. It is good on quiet, still water, in the early morning or late evening. It is a wonderful way to catch bass around lily pads, moss beds, rocky shorelines, in the brush, or among the tree stumps.

Cane Pole Fishing

Long the favorite system of thousands has been cane pole fishing. It may be the lazy way to catch fish, but it also contributes a great deal to the contentment of many thousands of fishermen.

Go anywhere and you'll find pole fishermen. Usually they are wearing flop hats or blue bonnets. But, it also is pretty certain that there will be a stringer of mixed fish hanging in the water nearby.

Now comes South Bend with a new rod for jig and pan fishing. It is called the Lazy Day. It is a 10-foot telescoping glass rod, with a wooden handle. Some of these rods are equipped with line keepers so that the lines can be wound on the keepers when the rod is closed.

The combination costs more than a cane pole ($7.95 to $11.95), but it also has many worthwhile features to recommend it. For instance, a 10-foot rod closes to approximately half its length, and can be carried in the back of an automobile without any trouble. There's a big day coming for these extension type rods.

A Word of Caution

Here's a piece of advice that might save you a lot of money before the summer is over. Check your trailers. Most of us run our trailers trip after trip without paying too much attention to them. Then when something happens we are, invariably, a long, long way from home.

Trailer manufacturers make the best piece of equipment they know how. If we take good care of them, they will give us many miles of trouble-free use.

Here are some suggestions from Gator Boat Trailer Co., which are good for any boat trailer: (1) Clean and repack wheels and check bearings; (2) Thoroughly lubricate all moving parts; (3) Remove rust spots and repaint them; (4) Check cradle and bunker padding for boat protection; (5) Check coupler carefully. If it is out of line you'll bring home undue wear on your tires; (6) Tighten all bolts and (7) Replace winch-rope if it shows signs of fraying.

To these suggestions we might add — be sure and check your tail light and license number plate. Remember also that your tie-downs must be efficient and capable of holding your boat in place.

Take these precautions and you will have a minimum of trailer trouble.

Trailing boats is getting to be more of a problem every day, because of inadequate launching facilities and storage areas. Some boat owners are very thoughtless, too. They'll put their boats in the water and leave their trailers in the way of others who want to launch their own boats.

Remember, fellows — after you launch your boat, remove your trailer. Get it out of the way, so that the next fellow will have plenty of room to turn and launch. It could save you money in the long run as some of us are not too good at this trailer backing . . . and you might get rammed.

Most of us spend one-third of our lives in bed and asleep.

Engaged

CLEIDA JONES

The engagement and approaching marriage of Cleida Jones of Amarillo to Bennie Charles Smith of Amarillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Smith of Canyon, has been announced by Miss Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo E. Jones of Snyder, Okla. The couple will be married Aug. 9 in the home of the bride-elect's parents by Mr. Jones, minister of the Church of Christ in Snyder. Miss Jones received her B.S. degree from Abilene Christian College. She is a teacher in the Amarillo Public School System. A graduate of Canyon High School and Oklahoma City University, Smith is employed by the American Telephone and Telegraph.

PFC Jack Metcalf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Metcalf, was home on a 12-day leave before going to Korea. He left Seattle, Wash., June 24 and will stop at Hawaii, Okinawa and Japan before arriving in Korea to start his 13 months of overseas duty.

Brewer Attends Baptist Meeting

Art Brewer, Baptist Student Union director of West Texas State College, was one of more than 400 Baptist students and leaders who attended the fifth Baptist Youth World Conference in Toronto, Canada, June 27-July 2.

The meeting, first youth world conference to be held in North America, was expected to attract nearly 7,000 Baptist youth from 68 countries around the world, including the Soviet Union. Previous meetings were held in Prague, Zurich, Stockholm and Rio de Janeiro.

Two tours for the Texas youth attending the meeting included visits to Little Rock, St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Niagara Falls, New York City, Washington, D. C., Richmond, Atlanta, Birmingham and Nashville.

Purpose of the meeting, said Dr. W. F. Howard, secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, is to provide Baptist youth from all parts of the world with inspiration and fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Selander, Terry Ray and Nancy, have been house guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillier. They are from Salt Lake City, Utah.

First Little Girl — What's your last name, Annie?

Second Little Girl — Don't know yet. I'm not married.

Five Canyonites Enter Training

Five Canyon National Guardsmen are among the Texans this week to enter upon six months of active military training under the National Guard's "Take Six" program.

They are Melvin E. Powers, Larry L. Byars, Dee Z. Pond, Ronald D. Crow and Donald R. Britain, all members of Canyon's Company F 142nd Infantry Regiment, a component of the 36th (Texas) Infantry Division.

Under the six month program, the men will report to Fort Chaffee, Ark., and there undergo eight weeks of basic combat training. Then they are to attend a military school of their choice for the remainder of the six month tour.

After completion of the active duty, the men will return to Can-

WHEAT RATE UP 4 CENTS

The Wheat loan rate for Randall County has been raised four cents per bushel, ASC office manager Doyle Thomas was notified Wednesday morning.

The new loan rate will be $1.83 instead of $1.79.

Farmers who have had loans written at the old rate will get the extra four cents Thomas said. It will not be paid until the end of the loan period, however.

Work Starts on Buffalo Stadium

Pictures commemorating the beginning of construction of West Texas State College's new stadium were made Wednesday morning. The first work being done is the digging of a storm sewer from the stadium site to the creek. Contracts for building the first units of the stadium were approved this week by the board of regents.

WT Physics Head Attends Meeting

Dr. J. S. Urban, head of the physics department at West Texas State College, attended the national meeting of the American Association of Physics Teachers last week.

The meeting was held at the University of Colorado in Boulder. Main point of interest from the convention was a report on reorganizing and revitalizing the high school physics program, Dr. Urban said.

Dr. Lowes Heads Cancer Society

Dr. Ruth Lowes was chosen president of the Randall County unit of the American Cancer Society at a recent election.

Other officers are Conway Kuykendall, first vice president; Mrs. Scott Downing, second vice president; Mrs. John Jennings, secretary; and James Cole, treasurer.

Directors, in addition to the officers, are Raymond Batenhorst, Charles J. Beckman, Dr. Leta N. Boswell, Mrs. Roy N. Byrd Sr., Dr. C. C. Callarman, Mrs. Thornton Dewey, Kenneth Erwin, Mrs. R. B. Gist Jr., Mrs. John Hammonds, Avert Lair, Elmer Mason, Dr. Dudley Moore Jr., Helen White Moore, Mrs. R. A. Neblett, O. W. Parker Jr., Mrs. Edd Reynolds and Dr. J. B. Roberts.

Residents Attend Washington Meeting

Attending the Convocation on Local Church Evangelism in Washington, D. C., July 3-6 will be Mrs. C. V. Wilkinson and the Rev. and Mrs. H. Doyle Ragle and family, all of Canyon.

After the meeting, Mrs. Wilkinson will visit points of interest before coming home. She will speak on her trip during the evening worship service at 7:30 p.m. July 27 at the First Methodist Church.

The Ragles will go from the school to New York, where he will attend a special ministerial school. After visiting historical sites, they will return to Canyon by Aug. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lill spent the week end in Abilene with their daughter and family, the Robert Martins.

Social Pioneers Meet Thursday

The Social Pioneers met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Rae Walters with Mrs. R. T. Bowman, Mrs. J. C. Dowd and Mrs. W. I. Wester as hostess.

The president, Mrs. C. W. Dunn, opened the meeting with group singing the theme song, "Home on the Range." Mrs. Bowman gave the invocation, taken from the life of Samson and led the group in prayer. Cards were sent to the sick and shut-in.

Plans were made for a picnic supper for members and their families at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 28 in the Randall County Farm Bureau Building, with each family requested to bring a basket lunch and table service.

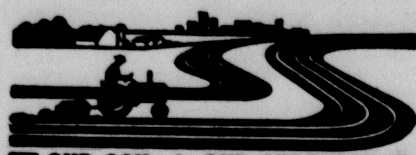

Mrs. Fred Marshall had charge of the program. Mrs. R. D. Lowry gave a reading "His Pa Is 'Nishialed'". Mrs. Mary Burtz gave "A Man's Slippers" and "Second Table."

The next meeting will be Sept. 25 with Mrs. C. W. Dunn, Mrs. G. B. Coombs, Mrs. T. V. Slack, Mrs. W. T. Davis and Mrs. Lowry will bring the program.

Mrs. L. F. Brandon and son Johnnie left Sunday night for San Bernardino, Calif., to visit Mrs. Brandon's parents, the A. D. Littletons of San Bernardino.

Mrs. Charles Stratton spent the week end in Levelland with her sister, Mrs. G. R. Marcom, who is seriously ill.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The supervisors of the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District have recently purchased an Eversman land leveler, a fertilizer spreader and a sprayer. This equipment was purchased upon request of the farmers and ranchers within this district. A petition signed by ten farmers has to be approved by the board before equipment can be bought. If you and your neighbors need a special type of equipment, see one of your supervisors.

This equipment is owned by the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District and is rented to the farmers and ranchers at a reasonable rate. The rental charge is to keep the machinery in good working condition and to replace it when it is worn out. The boys in the Vocational Agriculture Department of the Canyon High School are in charge of this equipment. If you would like to rent the equipment contact the FFA instructor.

The five supervisors, who are local farmers, donate their time to the needs of the district. The district was organized to help farmers and ranchers protect and improve their soils for future generations. Since there is no new land to move on to we will have to maintain or increase production of the farm land that we now have.

Sunday School Class Meets With Stratton

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Charles Stratton June 23.

Visitors are always welcome to the meetings of the board of supervisors. The board meets on the first Tuesday of each month in the Randall County Courthouse at 8 p. m.

with Edna Graham as guest speaker. Mrs. J. C. Dowd gave the devotional and prayer.

Present were Miss Graham, Mrs. S. L. Terry, Mrs. W. H. Harden, Mrs. J. C. Dowd, Mrs. Henry Long, Mrs. R. E. Gill, Mrs. Lottie Suggs, Mrs. George Small, Mrs. G. C. Yarbrough, Mrs. A. L. Watson and a visitor, Mrs. Gene Morrison.

Mrs. Stratton, assisted by Mrs. Crawford, served angel food cake, ice cream and punch.

Mrs. Don Harrington of Lamar, Colo., has for the past three weeks been at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Addie Hefner who is ill.

Fairview Breezes

Harvest is almost over in this vicinity.

We had a shower the first of the week.

Mrs. Don Stoneberg went Thursday to Wichita Falls, where her husband is attending school. They went to Fort Worth on business, and plan to come to the home of her mother, Mrs. Georgia Rogers, July 4. Gerry, Mike and Eddie Stoneberg are staying with their grandparents, the Frank Rogers, while their parents are in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gauthreaux returned to the Hollis Shipman home after a brief honeymoon trip to Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Gauthreaux will leave Friday for El Paso, where he is with the Air Force.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Zona Cox Moore. She formerly taught school at Fairview.

Rev. Lloyd Garrison of the Dallas, Ore., First Church has sent word that he and his family plan to come to Fairview July 25 and want to meet their friends at the church. Come and give Lloyd and Margie and their children a hearty welcome.

There was only a small crowd out for Sunday School Sunday morning. The church is scheduled to have a preacher next Sunday.

Audice Wesley visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shipman.

Shower Honors Lucy Mae Yarnell

Lucy Mae Yarnell, who will become the bride of Ewell Jennings of Fort Worth in August, was honored Saturday with a miscellaneous shower for 140 guests at the home of Ruth Cross.

Miss Yarnell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Yarnell of Anadarko, Okla., and the bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mrs. Pearl Jennings of Muleshoe and E. C. Jennings of Amarillo.

For the Saturday shower, a pale pink nylon cloth covered the serving table which was centered with an elongated spray of painted daisies with cornflowers. Mrs. C. C. Callarman and Mrs. Lee Johnson poured.

Receiving guests with Miss Cross and the honoree were Mrs. E. C. Jennings of Amarillo, Mrs. Adran Mason of Fort Cobb, Okla., sister of the bride-elect; Mrs. Herman Dover of Melrose, Ark., aunt of the bridegroom-to-be, and Alice Dover, of Melrose, cousin of the bridegroom-to-be. Jo Karen Mason and Adra Ann Mason, nieces of the bride-elect, presided at the guest book.

Hostesses with Miss Cross were Hattie M. Anderson, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mrs. W. Mitchell Jones, Sarah Thompson, Mabel Hare, Ruth Lowes and Mrs. Lee Johnson.

Birthday Party Held For Kathleen Bryan

Kathleen Bryan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Manly Bryan, was honored by her parents with a birthday party Friday.

After several games were played, cake and lemonade were served to Paula Wesley, Debra and Bryan Fassauer, Phyllis Hunnicutt, Pamela and Bennie Richardson, Larry Kiker, the honoree's brother Jeffrey, and her parents.

The Lowest Cost—
Most Concentrated Form of Nitrogen

Advantages of Anhydrous Ammonia . . .

1. COSTS LESS

COSTS LESS than other forms of nitrogen. Anhydrous ammonia is made by combining nitrogen taken from the air with hydrogen. It is the first product, and from it most other chemical nitrogen fertilizers are manufactured. Thus NH₃ costs less per pound of nitrogen.

2. MOST CONCENTRATED form of nitrogen

This is what you buy in anhydrous ammonia fertilizer.

3. ANHYDROUS AMMONIA NITROGEN saves on:

1. Freight costs
2. Bagging costs
3. Labor of unloading, hauling, storage and applying on soil.

4. EASY HANDLING

Anhydrous ammonia flows under its own pressure and is quickly and easily applied to the soil. It fits in with other modern farm operations that use machines to do the heavy work.

5. APPLICATION SEASON IS LONGER

Anhydrous Ammonia may be applied as a preplant, side-dressing or top-dressing application in the Spring and Summer. Because it combines with the soil and resists leaching at cool temperatures, ammonia may also be safely applied in the Fall or Winter in most clay-based soils after soil temperatures have dropped below 50 degrees.

6. SUBSURFACE APPLICATION

With NH₃ below the surface, plants will root deeper and utilize the nitrogen even when dry weather might prevent their absorbing a surface-applied solid fertilizer. Deep application not only encourages a deep root system for dry weather insurance, but also keeps the fertilizer below the germination level of weed seed.

Former Resident Wed in Durango

Carol Jean Mayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley L. Mayer of Durango, Colo., became the bride of Willard L. McDaniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McDaniels of Durango, former residents of Canyon, in ceremonies in the home of the groom's parents June 12.

Bishop Paul Shock of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints performed the ceremony before an improvised altar decorated with lighted candles and pink and white peonies, iris and roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of nylon eyelet over white satin with attached fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was a white orchid and lily of the valley tied with a white satin ribbon to a small white Bible.

Janice Strahan was maid of honor and Kodie McDaniels, 4-year old sister of the groom, was flower girl. The groom's father was best man.

Mrs. Louis Barclay and daughters, Ceola and Louellen, of Modesto, Calif., have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barclay.

LEGAL NOTICE

CONTRACTOR'S NOTICE OF RANDALL COUNTY HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

Sealed Bids addressed to E. T. CUMMINGS, COUNTY AUDITOR of Randall County, Canyon, Texas will be received at the office of the County Auditor and/or The Commissioners Court until 1:30 P. M., July 14, 1958 for furnishing all plant, labor, materials and equipment and performing all work required for the construction of 2.37 miles of refinishing Base Course, Prime Coat, and Single Asphalt Surface Course in Precinct No. 1, 3.40 miles of refinishing Base Course, Prime Coat and Single Asphalt Surface Course and 2.44 miles of Asphalt Seal Coat in Precinct No. 3 all in Randall County, Texas.

All proposals shall be accompanied by cashier's or certified check upon a national or state bank in the amount of 5% of the total maximum bid price payable without recourse to The Commissioners Court of Randall County, Texas or a bid bond in the same amount from a reliable surety company, as a guarantee that bidder will enter into a contract and execute performance bond within ten (10) days after notice of award of Contract to him. The notice of award of contract shall be given by the Owner within ten (10) days following the opening of bids.

The successful bidder must furnish performance bond upon the form provided in the amount of 100% of the contract price from an approved surety company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as surety.

The right is reserved, as the Owner may require, to reject any and all bids, and to waive any informality in bids received.

Plans, specifications and bidding documents may be secured from the office of Harvey W. Schmidt, Consulting Engineer, 221 Paramount Bldg., Amarillo, Texas.

The minimum wages to be paid on the work included in the proposal shall not be less than the minimum wages required by the Texas Highway Department for similar work.

Bidders shall inspect the site of the work and fully inform themselves as to all conditions and matters which can in any way affect the work or the cost's thereof.

Canyonite's Son On European Trip

Dr. Don Savage, associate professor of paleontology of the University of California, is in Europe this summer attending the fourth International Congress of Stratigraphy.

The son of Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon, Dr. Savage, who is scheduled to read a paper before the Congress, is also doing exploratory work in paleontology while in Europe. The countries where Dr. Savage will be working are Spain, Italy, Switzerland, England and France.

Receiving his B. S. degree at West Texas State College, Dr. Savage earned his M. S. degree in paleontology at the University of Oklahoma and his Doctorate at the University of California.

Along with his exploratory work in Europe, Dr. Savage will make a comparison of two types of skeletal remains of animals from outcrops in Cita Canyon, located near the WT campus, to European specimens from outcrops of approximately the same age.

Dr. Savage and his wife, the former Betty Brandon who is also a WT ex-student, have two sons and three daughters. Their home address is Lafayette, Calif.

Included among the numerous papers which Dr. Savage has published are two publications, "A Survey of Various Cenozoic Vertebrate Faunas of the Panhandle of Texas." The late C. Stuart Johnston, a former instructor in geology of WT, assisted on one publication.

Spending the week end at Red River, N. M., were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Byrd and son, Dr. and Mrs. Manly Bryan and sons, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton and children.

Mrs. Cranmer Hosts Pleasant View Club

Mrs. E. L. Cranmer was hostess to the June 25 Pleasant View Home Demonstration Club with the vice president, Mrs. John Jennings, presiding.

Mrs. Roy Henderson, chairman of the nominating committee, read the nominees for officers for next year. Nominees are Mrs. R. A. Hodges, president; Mrs. Jennings, vice president; Mrs. Cristler Crain, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. B. L. Hufnagle, council delegate; and Mrs. H. M. Stokes, reporter.

The club will sell Christmas cards to help finance the club. During the social hour, "I've Got a Secret" was played with Mrs.

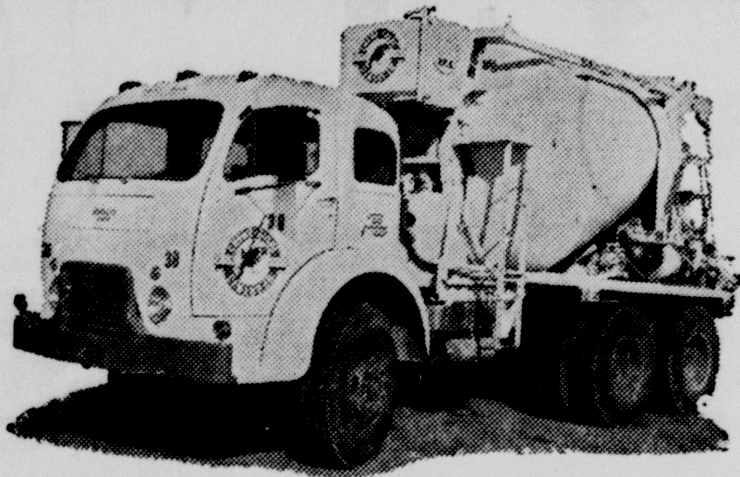

Henderson and Mrs. Clayton Kelley as surprise birthday contestants. Guessing games were conducted by Mrs. Earl Burtz, program chairman.

Cherry pie and coffee were served to 11 members. Other members present were Mrs. J. H. Barrett, Mrs. Jackie Howell and Mrs. Ray Welch.

Cole Named to UT Spring Honor Roll

Robert L. Cole, Canyon, received Magna Cum Laude honors on the University of Texas honor roll for the College of Engineering for the 1957-58 spring semester.
